THE THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

DECEMBER 17, 2023

Dear Friends in Christ,

Rejoice! This Sunday we have arrived at the mid-way point of Advent--with our journey nearly complete, we rejoice in anticipation of the Christmas celebration. The very first description of Jesus, given by the Angel to the Shepherds in the Gospel of Luke, was simply this: "Good News of Great Joy."

We who follow Christ have a mission to spread this Good News of Great Joy. Can you think of two or three people who God wants to reach through you? If we really slow down and pray about it, I'm certain God will show us who they are. It begins with friendship and charity...but it doesn't stop there. Eventually we need to say, as our Lord did, "come and see." We could invite them to join us in prayer, to attend mass, to read a good book on the faith or to attend a class taught by myself or Fr. Kumud. This is our baptismal vocation to be, as Pope Francis says, "missionary disciples."

in prayer,

Fr. Luke

Other Notes:

The Holy Spirit is certainly at work in evangelization on college campuses throughout the United States. Having spent the first four years of my priesthood on campus I got to witness this in a profound way--I, myself, grew a lot in my faith in my college years. This year I'm delighted to see that St. Paul's at UW-Madison has 75 students preparing for baptism and confirmation. That's not a typo....75!

The Madison Seminarians will be making a stop at Greenway Manor this week on Wednesday to sing carols at 5:30 p.m. Their annual caroling tour is a great time of fun and fraternity for the seminarians. It's a great reminder to us to pray for many holy vocations to the priesthood.

Our first transition team meeting will be on Thursday, Dec. 21st at 6:00 p.m. at St. John's Church Hall. I look forward to discussing the parish naming process. Our notes from our meetings will be available at our new website: www.pastorate6.org. This website is live but not yet a finished project--please check it out!

As a follow up to our budget shortfalls, I would like everyone to make a financial commitment as we enter the new year for our parish offertory. You will not be asked to submit this commitment to the parish. A good starting point would be to give 2.5% of our income back to our parish. This would amount to one hour of a 40 hour work week. As one priest I know put it, "we should work one hour each week for God." Thank you for your generosity. In January a financial update and capital campaign update letter will be published for your review. For those who may be new to the parish, a 5-year capital campaign for both St. Luke's and St. John's will be wrapping up in 2024. These campaigns were used to update the school buildings and various other projects which the letter will detail. St. John's has about $225,000 (with pledges still coming in) in the bank to be used on projects over the next year. This money is restricted for capital improvements of our church and school.

PENANCE/RECONCILIATION

Reconciliation is offered 30 minutes before every scheduled mass.

MARRIAGE

To schedule a wedding date, call the parish office. The common policy of the Diocese of Madison requires a 6-month minimum notice. We strongly recommend at least one year in advance.

BAPTISM

Baptism dates are arranged through the parish offices. First time parents are required to attend a baptism preparation program before the baptism of their child. Please call the parish office for more information.

COMMUNION FOR THE SICK

We are happy to bring Holy Communion to those confined to their homes. Please notify the parish office.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK
